Ingredion Incorporated

Differentiated dairy: innovative solutions to profitably enhance the goodness and appeal of dairy.

Consumers want less and more at the same time. How do you reduce fat and sugar and add to dairy's overall nutritional profile? And still keep the luscious texture, great taste and clean label consumers expect? The answer is Ingredion. Only Ingredion has the right ingredients, expertise and capabilities to help you get to market quickly with innovative products that address today's trends and consumer preferences.

The perfect texture, and sweetness

Imagine creating exciting new products that help consumers trim sugar and fat while enjoying new dairy eating experiences. Ingredion brings you DIAL-IN® Technology, a powerful, proprietary approach to optimizing the texture and sweetness profiles of your products. Working with our experts, you get to market quickly and cost-effectively, with less trial and error.

From Greek yogurts and processed cheese to "permissible indulgence" desserts, DIAL-IN® Technology uses consumer insights to help you target and deliver your desired texture and sweetness. This rapid, robust, data-driven approach also guides the design of signature texture and sweetness profiles for products, such as decadent dairy and other milks and yogurts consumers can drink, spread or eat.

Enhancing dairy's great nutrition

Develop healthy dairy products that address top consumer health concerns. Add clinically proven benefits and meaningful label claims in digestive, bone, and joint health, plus energy and weight management.
